

***WHERE DO THEY GO?

The Sunday school teacher
asked little Johnny,
"Johnny, where do all liars go?"
Johnny answered,
"My daddy says
`They go to Washington, DC.'"

***WHERE BUT IN America?

We have the best politicians
Money can buy.

***WHERE BUT IN CHICAGO

Mrs. Jones, a lifelong, hardcore Democrat was dying and called her son in
for a last request:

"Son, bury me in Chicago.
I want to keep on voting!"
(Paul Harvey)

***CHECKS AND BALANCES

Congress writes the checks and taxpayers make up the balances.

***ALCOHOL

A female senior citizen
asked her Mississippi senator,
"Suh, what do you think of alcohol?"
"Well, ma'am," he began,
"if what you mean by `alcohol'
is that devil's brew
that robs people of their brains,
that takes food
from the mouth of babies,
and shoes off the feet of children,
that kills millions on the highways,
then, Ah'm against it!"

But:

If what you mean by `alcohol'
is that preservah of medicines,
that tranquilizer,
that calmah of jaded nerves,
that social lubricant,
then Ah'm all fah it!"

***HOW LONG?

Abraham Lincoln had long legs.
Once, someone asked him,
"How long do you think a person's legs should be?"
Lincoln answered dryly,

"Long enough to reach the ground!"

***TRADITION

There were two political parties

in biblical days:

the publicans and the sinners.

There are still two parties today:

the REpublicans and the sinners.

***THE DEVIL A DEMOCRAT?

A deacon said to his pastor, who was a diehard Democrat,

"Reverend, I believe that you'd vote for the devil if he ran on the Democratic ticket."

After some thought, the preacher
carefully replied,

"Well, maybe not in the primary."

***ON FARM SUBSIDIES

A farmer had just returned from the mailbox and said to his wife,

"Ma, we just received another check from the government. And I can't remember what we didn't plant and what field we didn't plant it in."

***POLITICAL WATCHES

1

The Bush Watch

has no hands,

only Bush's face on the face:

You have to read his lips.

2.

The Perot Watch

Now it's running

Now it's not

Now it's running

3.

The Clinton Watch

sells for only $4.95

plus tax

plus tax

plus tax

....

***TAXATION

Is like giving yourself

a blood transfusion

from one arm to the other

going from Louisiana to Texas:

"Leaving Taxes, Entering Texas."

***ON DISSING DAN QUALE

Edgar Bergen had three dummies:

Charlie, Mortimer and Candace.

Charlie was the smart one. <><
